

Legend
 Continuous lines with arrow – defined interfaces in specifications
 Dashed lines – out of scope for this model

Notes
 Printer registration – unspecified method by which the cloud print provider becomes aware of the printer, including location, capabilities, and features
 Association – unspecified method by which the cloud print provider becomes aware of which printers the client can send print jobs, request status, and limitations on print jobs to include access to features or specific capabilities.
 Enumerate – unspecified method that delivers to the client a list of printers available to the client.
 Print Job/status – unspecified methods by which client initiates a print job and receives status on the print job.